

3, Aftermath of Munich Putsch

Attempted Putsch > humiliating disaster for Nazis.

⇒ However in following months ⇒ it turned out to be a key event which actually helped them.

Ludendorff ⇒ released ⇒ faced no punishment

- was in fact elected to Reichstag in 1924

Hitler ⇒ did face trial ⇒ turned into a showcase for him

- judge allowed him to make long speeches criticizing WG and setting out his ideas
 - this is because judge had strong nationalistic views + disliked WG

Court case ⇒ covered extensively in newspapers ⇒ made Hitler a national celebrity

⇒ was eventually sentenced 5 years in Landsberg prison ⇒ only served 9 months

- conditions in prison were very comfortable
 - Had access to books + visitors
 - spent his time there writing his autobiography ⇒ Mein Kampf

Become clear that views of Nazi Party ⇒ resonated with powerful groups within Germany ⇒ particularly Judiciary.
