

5, Winning Support of the Nazi Party

Hitler ⇒ could be very persuasive + charming

⇒ was a powerful and confident speaker ⇒ who prepared and practiced his speeches he was good at gauging mood of the audience + appeared sincere to them.

- many of his speeches ⇒ some delivered in beer halls ⇒ addressed people's concerns
- He managed to win over many important business owners and industrialists ⇒ who agreed with his anti communist and anti trade unions views.
- They contributed to the party's finances.

Hitler ⇒ also created a network of local Nazi parties.

⇒ These efforts ⇒ produced encouraging results.

Nazi candidates ⇒ stood in the Reichstag elections for the first time in May 1923 ⇒ won 32 seats.

1929 ⇒ membership of the party was over 100 000.
