

Enabling Act

Hitler ⇒ now had a majority

→ was not quite the 2/3 he needed to change the Weimar constitution.

⇒ wanted to introduce a new measure ⇒ enabling act.

⇒ would allow him to make and pass new laws ⇒ without consulting Reichstag.

When time came to vote ⇒ only Hitler's old enemies ⇒ SPD ⇒ voted against him

Communists were in prison

Many Reichstag members did not vote ⇒ they were either injured or were intimidated by SA and SS.

Catholic center party ⇒ decided to cooperate with Nazis.

Enabling act was passed on 24th March.

Hitler was now effectively a dictator.

⇒ for the next 4 years ⇒ if he wanted a new law ⇒ he could just pass it.

→ there was nothing president Hindenburg or anyone else could do.

Democracy in Germany ⇒ had ended.
