

SA and SS

At this time ⇒ there were frequent street battles between communists and the police
Everywhere > large unruly groups of unemployed workers ⇒ gathered on street corners.

Contrast ⇒ SA and SS ⇒ gave the impression of discipline and order.
⇒ Many felt ⇒ that country needed this kind of order.

⇒ they welcomed the fact that SA ⇒ were prepared to fight the communists.
→ were also more organized than the communists.

Usually had support from army and police ⇒ when they beat up opponents and disrupted meetings and rallies of opposing parties.
