

Impact of Unemployment

1932 ⇒ unemployment was at 6 million ⇒ or 40% of the workforce

→ most sections on German society ⇒ affected ⇒ industrial workers, farmers and middle classes.

- many small businesses and shops ⇒ went bankrupt
- Income of the average German ⇒ fell by 40% between 1929 and 1932
- Inevitably ⇒ this led to hunger and often to illness

Many Germans ⇒ were evicted from their homes because they could not pay their rent

⇒ makeshift shelters began to appear in most cities.
