

Economic Recovery and Unemployment

Hitler ⇒ had promised German people ⇒ he would get them back to work and restore the economy

Situation was terrible ⇒ 5 million unemployed in 1933.

Hitler ⇒ fortunate ⇒ that worst of the depression was over by then.

- Nazis acted with energy and commitment ⇒ to solve some of the major problems.

Germany's finances ⇒ organized ⇒ to fund a huge program of work creation

Reich Labor service ⇒ sent men on public works projects and conservation programs.

- in particular ⇒ to build a network of highways or autobahns
Railways ⇒ were extended / built from scratch.

There was major house building programs and public housing projects -> such as Reich Chancellery in Berlin

Hitler ⇒ appointed Hjalmar Schacht ⇒ as first president of Reichsbank in March 1933
⇒ then economics minister in Aug 1934.

→ by using state regulations such as deficit financing (borrowing money from public through loan bonds with promise of paying them back in future) → he played a critical role in economic recovery and stabilizing German finances ⇒ to fund grand programmed.

Measures ⇒ were effective ⇒ in reducing unemployment ⇒ welcomed by most Germans.
